2 Chief Natufe Street, off Bode Thomas Surulere, Lagos, Nigeria

About me:

A goal oriented, talented, curious and technically-minded individual who loves learning new things and building solutions on both the client side and server side of the web. Offers an array of skills relevant to building full stack web apps with immersive and responsive client sides compliant with modern SEO standards and robust RESTful APIs.

Looking to work with like minded individuals on the development of web solutions.
